1. [REDACTED] -- a good friend of [REDACTED] who is a geographer at Penn State -- reported to me that [REDACTED] had been in Russia for a month on one of the [REDACTED] trips and had succeeded in procuring a number of oblast maps and had taken a number of pictures in Central Asia and Poland.

[REDACTED] further reported that [REDACTED] made contact with the [REDACTED] department) and was instructed to prepare a list of his slides in duplicate, etc., etc. This [REDACTED] considers to be a waste of time, but he would like to get his material into the hands of people who are interested in having them or knowing about them.

25X1A9b I suggested to [REDACTED] that we [REDACTED] could contact [REDACTED] through [REDACTED] in order to look at his oblast maps and indicate which slides we would like to duplicate for the Agency.
